

Website Privacy Statement

The Prattville High School Band (PHSB) respects individual privacy and collects no personally identifiable information unless an individual affirmatively chooses to make such information available. The organization does not, and will not, actively share personal information about Web site visitors. Personal information provided by visitors, such as e-mail addresses or information submitted via online forms, is used by PHSB to assist individual visitors as necessary. This assistance may involve redirecting an inquiry or comment to another PHSB individual or unit better suited to provide resolution.

Summary information about visitors to PHSB web sites is collected and analyzed on a periodic basis. This information is analyzed to generate summary statistics for purposes such as guiding design considerations, determining successful site segments and determining problem areas. However, because PHSB is part of a public institution, some information collected from the web sites may be subject to the Alabama Open Records Act, or in some instances PHSB may be compelled by law to release information gathered from PHSB Web servers.

Questions about this privacy statement or the practices of the PHSB Web site should be directed to webmaster@prattvillebands.com.
