June 21, 2009

To the Prattville High School Band Students and Parents, Faculty, and Staff:

I am thrilled and humbled to have the opportunity to introduce myself to you all as your new Band Director. It is an honor for me to have been selected for this position, and I want you all to know how excited I am to be here. The outstanding reputation of Prattville High School's band, academics, and athletics is known all over the country, and I am proud to now be a part of such a tradition of excellence.

Having known both Mr. Bowman and Mr. Grant since our undergraduate days at Auburn University, I am aware of the high standards to which this Band has been held, the goals that have been set, and the accomplishments you all have achieved. I intend to pick right up where Mr. Bowman left off, and along with Mr. Grant, lead this Band program to continued success. I am very passionate about my work with both music and students, and I hope you all see evidence of this as we get to know each other.

Please feel free to stop by the Band room to introduce yourself. Mr. Grant and I will be working hard these next few weeks in preparation for this year, and I would welcome the opportunity to meet you and answer any questions you may have. Also, please do not hesitate to email me or call me at any time throughout the year if there is anything I can do for you or your student. My door is always open, and I am looking forward to getting to know each of you.

Again, thank you so much for having already extended such a warm welcome to my wife and me. I would also like to express my deepest appreciation to Mr. Faulkner, Mr. Hicks, and the Autauga County Board of Education for allowing me this incredible opportunity. Thanks to Mr. Bowman, Mr. Grant, and all of you in advance for your help and patience as we enter into this new school year. I hope you all enjoy working with me as much as I know I will enjoy working with all of you.

Sincerely,
Rob Cothran
